“ Sue and I worked together at USEM. We became friends immediately and she and Patrice and I had lunch together often. I don't have anything funny...just loved my friend so very much.

I met Sue while walking my dog in the neighborhood, she was coming out of her house with a little dachshund. Our dogs tolerated each other so we became friends. We walked together almost every evening. I really enjoyed our talks and I admired the way she encouraged independence for Russ. She was a great mom. I missed her when she moved away but also admired her for doing what was right for her family. I pray she will rest in peace and I will keep her family in my thoughts and prayers.
