

Taylor Thomas Gaes

June 7, 1999 - June 8, 2015

Taylor Thomas Gaes (Tay or Tay Tay) was born on June 7, 1999 in Storm Lake, IA and passed away June 8, 2015 in Fort Collins, CO. He is survived by his parents Shannon and Dawn Gaes; his sister Alysa; grandparents Al and Beth Homandberg; Drew and Ann Coombs; Tom and Renee Gaes; and Susan Gaes; great-grandparents, Ellen Parker and Darleen Homandberg; many uncles and aunts, cousins and friends. Preceded by many. He started his education at Creative Kids Corner in Wellington, CO and then moved on to Eyestone Elementary. After that he spent one year at Wellington Middle school before transferring to his home school, CLP Middle school, for his last two years in middle school. He spent his Freshman and Sophomore years at Poudre High School.

Taylor was interested in anything that had to do with sports and outdoor activities. He was an avid hunter and outdoorsman as well. He loved to rope, ride his horse, and participate in rodeos. Taylor always had time to laugh and joke with his many friends and teammates. He didn't have enough time in the day to do everything he loved. He excelled at everything he did have time for, though. His excellence was due to hard work and perseverance. He was dedicated to everything he did.

Taylor's memorial service will be held June 13, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. in the South Auditorium of Timberline Church in Fort Collins. His ashes will be spread on the family ranch. Goes Funeral Care is in charge of the arrangements, please visit www.goesfuneralcare.com to leave condolences and share memories.

Taylor's family has set up a memorial fund in lieu of flowers to help kids with the cost of equipment and fees associated with playing the sport Taylor loved. You can make a donation to the fund by contacting any Fort Collins Public Service Credit Union or visit <http://taylorgaesbaseballmemorialfund.mydagsite.com>
