“ It was so sad to hear of Tom's passing, just hard to believe. One thing that will be dearly missed is his "happy smile". Every time Tom would greet you, he had that genuine "happy smile", like he was really happy to see you. He had a kind heart and cared about other people and was just a lovable guy.

His devotion to his parent's (his mother being my sister) during their declining illnesses earned him many rewards in heaven, I am sure. In reflecting back, what an honor it was for Tom & his son Max to visit in Minnesota a year ago or so. We sat around the table with other family-elderly aunts & uncle- hearing about Tom's & Max's life experiences and it spoke volumes they took the time to do so, and of course, munched on pizza. What great guys: Tom & his son, Max. They don't come any better, just the best!

Love,
Aunt JoAnn Hell

“ I knew Tom from when he was a little boy in Hope. I use to work for his Grandmother when she lived in Hope. When she would visit for the winter in Fort Collins I would drive her out there and it was Tom's duty to drive me to the airport to fly back home. That happened a couple times and he would also give me a tour of the city while I was there also. Our son was the same age and they sometimes would serve as alter boys in church. When he would come back to ND, after they moved, we would always have a good visit.
