“ With all the memories of growing up together where do I start, I know that was one of the greatest things about living in the same town.

To know now that you are: free to drift with the eagles, to be angel watching over us. To know that you get to be with our family is more than words can say. To know Tim that you are free.

“ I could not have asked for a better brother in the whole world. I am so sad that I did not get to spend more time with Tim in the recent months. As sad as i am that he is no longer here with us, i can rest knowing that he is with my dad in heaven and there is no better place to be. I LOVE YOU BIG BROTHER!

“ I remember one day Charlotte and I arrived at his house to visit Larry, Cindy and kids. We stayed in the car and watched 3 1/2 year old Tim, already on the outside, instructing his lil' sister Miranda exactly how to climb the fence. Pointing to each foot hold over and out to freedom beyond the yard. I wish him that freedom now. He will be missed by so many of us. I hope he knew how much.

All of us cousins grew up together we all will forever treasure the memories that we had with Timmy. Timmy had many struggles in life. I really wish he would have waited one more day. His children and his whole family are really going to be missing him when we all come out of shock.

“ Tims Grandmother (Agnes) and my mother (Elaine) were sisters. Tims dad Larry was my 1st cousin and we spent a few of our childhood years being raised together. I know life hasn't been easy for Tim and I am just so very sorry this happened. I hope he is in a better place now! Love, Jeanette

“ I spent almost every waking day of my young life for many years with Miranda and Tim. We shared so many laughs. From the frogs, 4 wheeler we never drove, the pin ball machine and the bb gun he shot me in the leg with at close range (I still have the scar to prove it). This and everything in between! Tim and Miranda are always in my thoughts and are a huge part of my childhood. I wish that I had kept in better touch. I will never forget!! Each time I think of you Tim I will smile, what more could I do that is what you did for me!
