

Travis E Tucker

May 9, 1991 - April 17, 2026

Travis was a devoted family man who always showed up for those he loved, serving as a steady source of strength and support. He was a loyal friend, known for his unwavering presence and dependable nature. Travis carried a sharp wit and an easy sense of humor, often bringing lightness to even the most difficult moments.

He had a deep love for the outdoors, finding joy in fishing, hunting, hiking, and exploring. Some of his happiest times were spent in Michigan with family at the Empty Brass Lodge, surrounded by the people and places he loved most. He cherished time with his nephew, especially playing and creating lasting memories together.

Travis enjoyed working on his truck and he worked in Irrigation for the City of Loveland for 15 years.

He loved and cherished spending time with his dogs, Whiskey and Smokey, who were a special part of his life. He was incredibly smart, fearless, and resourceful—qualities that showed in everything he did. He was also a talented artist with a love for music and instruments, expressing creativity in ways that brought joy to those around him.

Travis faced life with quiet confidence and resilience, leaving a lasting impression on everyone fortunate enough to know him.

He leaves behind a loving family including his Mother, Shelley Tucker; Father, Mark Tucker; two Brothers, Bryant (Angie Moore) Tucker and Jarad (Diane) Tucker; one Nephew, Jackson Tucker; one Aunt, Renae (Daryl Lozania) Powell; two Uncles, Gary Powell and David Powell, and his maternal grandparents Gary R. and Diane Powell.
