

Tyler Wayne Mills

May 8, 1980 - February 9, 2015

Tyler Wayne Mills, 34, of Fort Collins, sadly passed away unexpectedly Monday, February 9, 2015. Tyler was born May 8, 1980 in Fort Collins, Colorado, to Cheryl and Gerald Mills. Tyler grew up and attended school in Fort Collins. He had a very active childhood; whether it was on his Huffy bike, (he hated Huffy bikes), skateboard, swimming at SCCA pool, or just terrorizing the neighborhood, he was always on the move.

Tyler had a natural athleticism that was a source of envy. He excelled in soccer, wrestling, and wake-boarding, but he could quickly pick up and excel at any sport. As good as he was in sports, he was even better in friendships. He was a social butterfly and had friends of every age and walk of life. Tyler became an accomplished journeyman mason, a trade that he learned from his Uncle Fred Soderberg. He enjoyed and took pride in his craft and this reflected in the quality of his work. He was a favorite co-worker of most, bringing an incredible sense of humor and personality to the job site.

Tyler will be remembered most for his infectious smile, incredible personality, tremendous wit and giving heart. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends. He is survived by his two sons, who were his greatest source of happiness, Tyler (8) and Trevor (6) Mills; his sister Carrie (Tory) Makloski; nephews Bayley, Riley, Brody and Joey Makloski; Uncles Fred (Linda) Soderberg, Randy (Robin) Soderberg, Aunt Susie (Dick) Miller and numerous cousins. He is also survived by his stepmother Sonja Mills and ex-wife Heather Wagner.

Tyler was preceded in death by his parents Cheryl and Gerald Mills, his grandmothers Mary Thomas and Eula Mills, and his Uncle Stevie Thomas. A memorial service is scheduled for 10 a.m., Saturday, February 21th at Timberline Church in the South Auditorium.

“ One of my most favorite memories of Ty is when we went on our first trip to Lake Powell. It was his whole Family and and few family friends. We had a blast! Our second trip was even better. I have a substantial amount of memories with him. He was a monumental part of my life. I have always wished the best for him. He will be dearly missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. Rest in Peace Tyler!

“ I could probably fill this entire page with hilarious stuff you have said, but most of them would probably be inappropriate to put here. Things are never gonna be the same without you. I am gonna miss all the little things like going golfing with you, playing FiFA on playstation, and the way my house would smell like a cologne factory when you walked in. Most of all I will miss your smile, your laugh, and our friendship. We have yelled at each other, laughed and cried together all of the things that brothers do, cause that's what we were, and I love you brother more than you'll ever know. Be an angel for your boys, your sister, and your nephews. I don't know if they have cars in heaven, but if they do.....remember to take your damn keys out before you lock the door!

“ You were the first person I saw when I started at a brand new school (Leshar, HA) and I remember always thinking you were the walking definition of "All American boy"....pretty darn cute at that. It turned out you had a really great soul too.... years later when my little brother was often picked on by a group of guys, you were always the one who was kind to him, and stood up for him, and people listened to you.... So I thank you for that. A bright light put out too soon.... I wish your family peace and strength.

“ Tyler was one of the most amazing people the I was blessed to have in my life and in my family. Tyler could always light up a room with his gorgeous smile and outgoing personality. I cherish so many memories that Tyler and I share its to hard to pick just one. There is one thing I know for sure and that is this world will not be the same without him and he will truly be missed more than words will ever be able to express. I love you cousin and may you dance with the Angels now because as we all know you loved to dance!
