*Val was a very beautiful person, inside and out. i was Val's healthcare person years ago. We got to know each other and became good friends. When I first met her she couldn't talk very well but she kept on smiling. We used to watch old videos and music that she liked. She showed me all of her jewelry she made, flower arrangements, and paintings. She was very talented. I loved all the pictures of her belly dancing, she really enjoyed all of that. She did a lot of things in her life considering her disease. Ray made sure she had a good life and her children and grandchildren were a big part of her life. She'll be sorely missed. I know God will keep her safe and happy until we get there.
Love you Val, Vita*
