

Vincent Anthony Ricci

May 20, 1924 - July 11, 2015

Vincent A. Ricci, 91 years young, of North Providence, Rhode Island, and Fort Collins, Colorado, died in Fort Collins after a sudden health event and a six day journey to Heaven. He died in the wonderful care of Poudre Valley Hospital in Fort Collins, under the watchful loving vigil of his family.

He was a self-made businessman and journeyman jewelry toolmaker at Lorvin Tool & Die, as well as Tru-Kay Manufacturing. He loved everything this life had to offer and lived his faith to his death.

He is survived by his loving wife of 67 years, Lorraine Ricci; his treasured Vincent (Betty) Ricci, Jr of North Providence; Linda Garzone of Warwick; Lori (Mark) Carlson of Fort Collins, and his most precious gift Robert Ricci of Fort Collins. He was proud of his grandchildren, AnnMarie, Leanne, Brent, Jack and Becky, and his newest loves; his great-grandchildren, Ella and Donovan.

Vincent thanks his sons-in-laws, daughter-in-law, and nephews-in-law for taking care of his family going forward. A Funeral will be in Fort Collins, Colorado, in the shadow of the beautiful Rockies. Private Burial at St Francis Cemetery on July 18th will be followed by a Memorial Mass at St. Ann's Church, North Providence, RI at Noon. Family and friends are welcome to join this celebration.
