“ Gingee I think of you everyday. It's still hard to believe you are gone. I have always looked to you for guidance and support. You touched so many lives in a positive way. You became a wonderful Mother because you had lots of practice on us younger kids. You are the star for which all evenings wait. I love you and miss you and still wish you where here.

“ It goes without saying that Virginia was a generous sprinkling of angel dust upon this earth which always left us filled with joy. Her departure leaves us now in tears. It was my joy to be her cousin and grow up together. I extend my prayers and condolences to her loved ones. Today Heaven has welcomed her joy home.
