“ I worked with Walt at King Soopers #9. What a wonderful, truly nice, and funny man. I was always jealous of his lunch (as everyone was 😊) that his wife so lovingly made him..on a real plate with real silverware. That makes me smile. Walt was steadfast in what he believed in, never making excuses for it. I truly respected him. Joe and I would stop by now and then I visit and I was always amazed at their garden, simply beautiful!! I'm so sorry for your loss. God's Blessings and prayers to your family. Kaycene Hulbert.

“ *After I married one of Walt's brothers, it was interesting to get to know their large family. One of the things I enjoyed about Walt was his dry sense of humor. My husband and I occasionally went to Walt and Bev's for a friendly game of Dominoes...it was always fun to hear the words Walt would use to express his frustration over a bad move or a loss. I had no idea there were so many substitutions for curse words!
Walt and Bev were a devoted couple and it was sweet to see how they worked with each other.
Sorry for the family loss--Kay Sheahan*

“ Dear Bev and Family,
I am so sorry for the loss of this beloved family man. I always enjoyed seeing him at the St. Joes cafeteria and admired how he was always there to help Bev when she needed some extra kitchen help. Walt had a great sense of humor and always an interest in helping others. What a great guy! Bonnie Kemp
