

Wanda Joan Murray

May 30, 2019

Wanda Joan Murray, 78, of Fort Collins, passed away May 30, 2019.

Wanda was born in Fort Collins in 1940 to parents John and Vivian Peregoy. She lived in Fort Collins all her life, graduating from Fort Collins High with her best friend from high school, Beverly Childers. Many people knew her from her 42 years working at Ever Open Café, and before that, at Teledyne Waterpik. Wanda loved camping, fishing, and most of all, Bingo and Farkle.

Wanda is survived by children, Billy Joe Karns (Rita), Bonnie Lee Garrett (Kevin), and Tammy Bella Miracle (David); grandchildren, Ryan Jones (Rachel), Hope Dale, David Joe Miracle (Cynthia), Amber Miracle, Chad Karns, and Paul Garrett; great grandchildren, Alana Dale, Hunter Jones, Aiden Jones, Rylan Brown, Alyssa Jones, Arabella Miracle, Wyatt Miracle, Trisa Miracle, and Waylon and Bently Karns; brother, Larry Peregoy; and many adopted kids that were our childhood friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ernest Murray; daughter, Linda Sue Jones; siblings, Carl Peregoy, Jerold Peregoy, Gene Peregoy, Basil, and Juanita Payne.
