

Mrs. Wanda Lee Powell

April 15, 1933 - October 30, 2013

Wanda Lee Powell was born on April 15, 1933 in Cheney, Kansas to parents Paris and Goldie Fisher. She died October 30, 2013 at Poudre Valley Hospital in Fort Collins, Colorado.

Wanda graduated as Salutatorian of the 1951 graduating class of Northeast High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. During her school years, she starred in many of her high school play productions, performing in many lead rolls. She also excelled in public speaking and earned a scholarship for her work. On October 20, 1951, Wanda and Harold Powell married in Shawnee, OK and went on to have three children.

Affectionately called "Bear" by her family and later "Grandbear" by her grandkids, Wanda worked as a field office supervisor for The Hartford Life Insurance Company in Oklahoma City. She was the problem solver for many agents throughout the United States during her tenure at The Hartford.

Wanda was a political junkie and proud of promoting liberal causes on Facebook, yet she lived her life very conservatively. She loved reading and, for a time, belonged to the Great Books Reading Club. She was her husband's and children's best friend, always putting family first.

Wanda is survived by her husband of 62 years, Harold; two daughters, Diane Walter (husband Steve) of Menlo Park, CA and Cynthia Powell (husband David Alexander) of Fort Collins; and their son Garth Powell of Colorado Springs; and four grandchildren: Mason Powell, Corey Walter, Laura Powell, and Marika Walter. She will be deeply missed.
