

Wendy Williams

February 18, 1964 - November 26, 2023

Wendy Victoria Williams died at home on November 26, 2023 after a brief illness. Wendy was born on February 18, 1964 in Fairbanks, Alaska to parents Raymond Williams and Elizabeth Mary (Shatford) Williams. She has also lived in Salt Lake City, Utah before coming to Fort Collins on New Year's Eve 1969. She attended Fort Collins High School and graduated in 1984. She worked at Steeles' Market for 16 years, and later at WalMart for 22 years, according to her sister. Because of her job as a cashier, many would recognize her face, but only a few befriended her. Her social life revolved around a small circle of friends who celebrated birthdays, holidays and frequent Saturdays out together. Wendy was an avid collector, of mostly vintage jewelry and decorative items like glassware. She was raised primarily by her mother Elizabeth after her father went to Canada.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Raymond and Elizabeth Mary Williams, who passed away in 2009; her sister Kathy who only lived for 3 years, as well as her maternal aunt Margaret Evans of Buffalo, New York, who died in 2022.

She is survived by her sister, Jane Elizabeth Williams of Fort Collins.

Please check back for Memorial Service days/times as they have not yet been finalized.

“ During my time at Sather's Jewelers, I enjoyed helping Wendy while she was looking at interesting Estate pieces. She possessed a keen knowledge of gems and a true love of beautiful jewelry! She will be greatly missed.

“ I can't begin to express how sad I am to hear that Wendy has passed and I will not see her in this life again. Upon hearing of her death, unstoppable tears rolled down my face in the line at WM. She has such a beautiful spirit, she glowed each time I interacted with her. Such a hard worker. Such a good person. I will miss you greatly! God be with you and your loved ones during this time of remembrance and celebration of you, fabulous you.

“ I often sought Wendy out at the checkout lines at Walmart. Although it was sometimes hard to make out what she was saying, she did her job in such a careful and thoughtful way. She would sometimes show me the rings she was wearing that particular day. Such a gentle, sweet lady. I am so very sorry to hear of her untimely passing. I am sure many of us will miss her at Walmart. My thoughts will be with her family.
